There was an unintentional mistake while selecting the SEM images from the folder in which the images of several synthesized materials were saved. We, the authors deeply apologize for the mishap. The scanning electron microscopic image (Figure 3 of the published article) was wrongly given. The updated correct images of Figure 3 (a-c) and d are given below. The authors apologize for any inconvenience caused.

Figure 3. (a-c) SEM images of PPF-700, PPF-800, and PPF-900 based activated carbon at magnification 20,000 x (d) EDAX analysis of PPF-900
